VISTAS is a peer-reviewed Journal which offers a distinctive integrated forum to discuss and disseminate new knowledge and research findings in all areas related to humanities and social sciences. It provides an opportunity for both new and experienced researchers and scholars to publish their articles online as well as in print.

VISTAS publishes works from a wide range of fields including sociology, law, language, management, literature, linguistics, anthropology, economics, education, political science, philosophy, psychology and library and information science.

Peer Review Policy:

All research articles submitted to this journal will undergo rigorous blind peer review by at least two experts in the relevant field, based on initial screening of the editorial board.

The views expressed by the authors are their own and do not necessarily represent the policies of the Open University of Sri Lanka.
