

CONTENTS

- Reflections on 40 Years of Teaching Through Open and Distance Learning:
A Case Study of The Open University of Sri Lanka 01
Dr. B. G. Jayatilleke
- Confronting Disciplinarity and Interdisciplinarity In The Social Sciences: An Intellectual Conundrum 31
Dr. Sepalika Welikala
- Maximizing the Potential of Multidisciplinary Social Sciences in Empowering
People Through ODL Methodologies 47
Dr. Pathmanesan Sanmugeswaran
- A Manifesto for the Past: The Past Conditional Temporalities of Language
Studies 69
Andi Schubert
- The Noise of Silence: Student Perceptions of Learning War Poetry Through
The ODL Mode 96
Lal Medawattegedara
- Globalization and Its Impact on State Functions: The Case of Sri Lanka
D.G. Kanchana 113
- Awareness of Predatory Journals Among Prospective Young Academics in Sri Lankan University Sector 132
F. M. M. T. Marikar
- The Economic Impact of Covid-19 on the Industry of Travel and Tourism in South Asia 141
S. S. N. Ariyawardana
- Social Empowerment of Unemployed Women by Providing Credit Facilities to Start Self-Employments: A Case Study of a Rural Bank in Sri Lanka
P.K.G.I.L. Ranasinghe 163